

ONGWANADA VACANCY

Ongwanada is committed to improving the quality of life for people with developmental disabilities and their families in the Kingston region and throughout eastern Ontario. We are seeking a highly motivated, experienced and dynamic team player for the following opportunity:

MANAGER PLANNING & SOCIAL SERVICES

Reporting to the Chief Clinical & Planning Officer and working with the Social Services Team, you will coordinate, direct, manage and oversee Social Work, Intake, Adult Protective Service and Person-Centred Planning programs.

Your supervisory/management experience in human services, coupled with your understanding of the developmental services sector, along with your academic credentials will make you a valuable addition to the organization. Your ability to think and act strategically and develop relationships and networks to further the organization's goals and objectives round out your skillset.

As a medium-sized employer with 500 employees, Ongwanada is a major resource in the provision of developmental services in Eastern Ontario.

Education, experience and competencies you will bring to this role include:

- Post-secondary education in social sciences, social work or health care fields;
- Minimum five years supervisory/management experience in social services, social work or other social program delivery;
- Knowledge of case management principles, intake, person-centred planning and social work practices;
- Knowledge of relevant legislation such as, the Child and Family Services Act and the Services and Supports to promote the Social Inclusion of Individuals with a Developmental Disabilities Act;
- Excellent interpersonal, communication and team-building skills;
- Experience working with individuals with a developmental disability is an asset;
- Valid class G driver's license with full driving privileges and the use of a motor vehicle.

Interested applicants are invited to submit a one-page profile and current resume by September 21st 2018 to:
