

ONGWANADA VACANCY

Ongwanada is committed to improving the quality of life for people with developmental disabilities and their families in the Kingston region and throughout eastern Ontario. We are seeking a highly motivated, experienced and dynamic team player for the following opportunity:

CHIEF RESIDENTIAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICES OFFICER

Reporting to the CEO as a key member of the senior management team, you will be responsible for the effective and efficient management and oversight of Ongwanada's residential and community supports, ensuring both quality and value. Working in a fast-paced and changing environment with oversight of a budget exceeding $15M, this high profile and important role is both challenging and highly rewarding.

At a minimum you will bring the following education, experience and competencies to this role:

- Minimum of an undergraduate degree in a social service, health or related field; masters level preferred
- Significant management/leadership experience, preferably in developmental services or related sector
- Knowledge and understanding of Ontario's developmental services sector
- Creative problem solving and decision-making skills
- Proven ability to lead, develop and advocate for others
- Experience leading and managing change
- Budget and resource management experience

Your ability to think and act strategically and develop relationships and networks to further the organizations goals and objectives and meet the needs of those supported round out your skillset.

Interested applicants are required to submit a detailed cover letter, one-page profile and current resume by 4pm on Friday November 9th 2018 to:
