

Media Advisory

Ongwanada Rocks

Benefit Concert to Raise Money for People With Developmental Disabilities

Kingston – It will be a night of friends, fun and great music as Ongwanada invades Brandeess Restaurant and Lounge on Saturday April 4th for the second annual Ongwanada Rocks benefit concert.

Local band, “The Boneyard Doggz”, will set the tone for the night of fundraising with their unique mix of blues and classic rock. The band, which includes two Ongwanada staff members, is donating their time to raise money in support of people living with a developmental disability. All proceeds raised through the event will go directly towards making an impact on the lives of Ongwanada clients through the purchase of equipment or recreational items.

Ongwanada is a non-profit charitable organization that provides programs and services to more than 600 adults and children with developmental disabilities in Kingston and eastern Ontario. Programs and services are delivered at three sites as well as community residences and other homes and offices in the region.

Concert Details

Date: Saturday April 4th

Time: 9:00 p.m. until close

Location: Brandeess Restaurant and Lounge, 178A Ontario Street

Cost: $5 in advance $7 at the door. Tickets can be purchased at Ongwanada’s main office 191 Portsmouth Avenue or at Brandeess.

For more information or interviews please contact:

John Pereira
Information Services Coordinator
Ongwanada
613-548-4417 ext. 1218
jpereira@ongwanada.com