Re: Organizational Review - MCCSS

Further to my memo of December 12 2023, the following is an update on the status of the organizational review being undertaken by MCCSS. Matt Luck, Director of Finance at Community Living Kingston and District, who has been providing support and assisting Paige and her team in Finance for the past number of weeks, will be leading the financial element of the Ministry review. Matt has been and will continue to be an occasional presence in the organization over the next while. Glenn Rampton, PhD, C. Psych. will be leading the review of CNSC and specialized accommodation; Glenn will be visiting Ongwanada this week and meeting with Tanya and the CNSC team. I will keep you informed if and when other elements of the review get underway and want to reiterate that the purpose of the review is to identify challenges and opportunities with the goal of strengthening Ongwanada and the services it provides.

Sincerely,
